
WEATHER
Tuesday, showers.

DAILY KENTUCKIAN

"GREATER HOPKINSVILLE WANTS YOU"

Established 1879 Vol. XL—Daily Vol. 1. No. 50

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, MAY 7, 1918.

Price 3 Cents

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Call 449 if you fail to get the Kentuckian promptly. And if you have a news item, phone it to the same number.

Sergt. Frank L. Baylies, of New Bedford, Mass., brought down his 4th German airplane a few days ago.

No wonder the Huns hesitate about starting another drive. They are much weaker and the Allies are much stronger than when the first and second drives were tried and resulted in failures.

The merger in 1906 of the Cumberland Presbyterian church with the Presbyterian church and the consolidation of their U. S. A. property was declared valid yesterday by the Supreme Court, after twelve years of litigation.

Blinded by a shell explosion at the battle of Gallipoli in the early months of the war, Thomas Skeychill, an "Anzac" private, had his sight restored in Washington Saturday by a simple operation on the vertebrae of his neck.

Mrs. Potter Palmer, in her day Chicago's most noted society-leader, President of the board of lady managers of the World's Fair in 1893, died at her winter home at Sarasota, Fla. She was before her marriage, Miss Bertha Honore, and was born in Louisville.

Fifty-two soldiers were sent to the front yesterday from Christian county. At 6 a. m. 36 colored troops left for Ft. Wayne, Michigan, and at 3:30 p. m. 16 white troops left for Fort Harrison, Indianapolis. The first draft quota was 324. These are under the second draft and there will be a third draft May 25th and the county's quota is expected to be more than 100.

Dudley W. Ledford, one of the fine young men who left for Indianapolis yesterday, is a son-in-law of Mr. E. H. Armstrong. His bride of a few months was Miss Cinderella Armstrong, one of the most talented girls in Hopkinsville. The couple since their marriage last winter have been living in Louisville. Mr. Ledford was summoned but not reached in the call, but insisted on going. His brave little wife was at the train to bid him goodbye with a smile instead of tears.

Lieut. Gen. Sir Robert Baden-Powell, addressing a central meeting of Scouts at Guildhall, says a London dispatch, told of work done by French Boy Scouts in the neighborhood of the fighting line. A heroic deed by one French Boy Scout was described in a letter found on the body of a dead German. Gen. Baden-Powell read the letter, which follows:

"A traitor has just been shot—a little French lad belonging to one of those gymnastic societies which wears the tri-color button. The poor little fellow in his infatuation wished to be a hero.

"A German column was passing along in a wooded defile and the boy was caught and asked whether the French were about. He refused to give information. Fifty yards farther on fire was opened from the cover of the wood.

"The prisoner was asked in French if he had known that the enemy was in the forest and he did not deny it. He went with firm step to a telegraph post and stood up against it, with a green vineyard behind him, and received the volley of the firing party with a proud smile on his face.

"Infatuated boy; it was a pity to see such wasted courage."

FOLLOWING THE FLAG.

Mills Campbell, son of Mrs. J. M. Campbell, of this city, has been commissioned a Lieutenant at Camp Jackson.

Hudson McReynolds, has been ordered to report at Columbus, O., Thursday, for instruction in the aviation school. He has been accepted, and has been awaiting orders for some time. His brother, Tom McReynolds, is already in the service, being a soldier at Camp Shelby.

HONORS WITH THE ALLIES

BIG SALE FOR RED CROSS

CHECKS RECEIVED YESTERDAY AMOUNT TO NEARLY EIGHT HUNDRED DOLLARS.

Yesterday was another big day for the Red Cross. The tobacco sale netted $707.15 and this is one of the best weeks of the season. Last week Mrs. Thomas Wilson was Captain of the committee which was composed of Mesdames W. R. Wheeler, John Byars, Lewis Ellis, Norman Melton, Hunter Moss, Ida Chappell, W. A. Wilson, W. B. Anderson, Vitas Gates, John Prowse, T. J. McReynolds, Stanley West, Harry Keach, Arthur Wallace, F. H. Mason, Jack Wadlington, Herbert McConnell, Yeatman, Hammonds, George Kolb, G. C. Koffman; Misses Lena Clark Mary Moore, Edith Rice.

Mrs. J. O. Cook will have charge during the next month and will captain the committee for this week.

The amount of the tobacco sales yesterday was supplemented by a $45.07 check from the Waters-Jones Revival and a like amount from the pie sale given by the Eastern Star Auxiliary and the total was close to $800.

PURELY PERSONALS.

J. M. Miles, of Gilbertsville, is here for a visit of a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Make Nelson, Jr., have returned from their bridal tour.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Howell have returned from a visit to friends in Owensboro.

Mrs. S. V. Todd, of Memphis, who spent several weeks with relatives here, returned home Sunday.

Miss Camille Allensworth, who has been teaching in the Howell school, is ill at her home in this city.

Preston, the 12-year-old son of Mr. Walter Boyd, of Newstead, is quite ill with measles.

Mrs. George Koenig, of Chicago, is visiting her father, Judge Polk Causler.

Miss Louise Hunter, of Bowling Green, has returned home after a visit to Miss Delle Wadlington.

Mr. W. R. Wheeler will leave today for Louisville to attend a wholesale grocers convention. He will drive through in his car.

Mrs. R. B. Knollenberg and little son will go to Louisville to-day to visit her parents. She will be gone several weeks.

Mrs. Vilgil G. Morehead, of Birmingham, and Mrs. Wilbur Rosson, of Owensboro, Ky., who have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Moore, have returned to their homes.

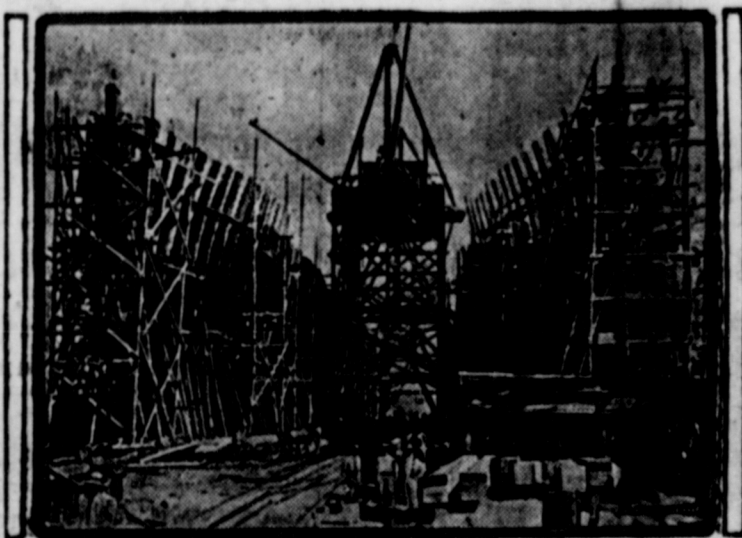

PASSES BEYOND.

The entire Church Hill community was made sad Sunday by the death of Mary Alice, six year old daughter of Eli Adams, of Church Hill. The child suffered an attack of measles some time ago and later developed an attack of pneumonia from which she died Sunday morning about 4 o'clock.

Mary Alice was the only child of Mr. Eli Adams. About 18 months ago the mother was taken by death after suffering several years from tuberculosis. Funeral services were held at 10:30 yesterday morning at Hebron Methodist church at Church Hill and were in charge of Rev. Vilgil Elgin formerly pastor of the Hebron church. Rev. Mr. Elgin was assisted by Eld. J. T. Hawkins of the Christian church. A large number of friends, neighbors and relatives were present to pay last respects to the once bright and lovable child which was the joy and inspiration of all who knew her.

The music was furnished by a quartette of singers from the Hopkinsville Methodist choir assisted by some of the singers of the Hebron church and others. Burial took place in Riverside cemetery in Hopkinsville at one o'clock following the funeral.

RUSHING WORK ON MERCHANT VESSELS

Texas had done some shipbuilding before the war, but in no comparison with what is being done now. Many of the biggest wooden ships ever built are being launched there. This photograph shows two huge wooden vessels on the ways at a Texas shipyard.

FIVE MARINE CASUALTIES

(By International News Service.)

Washington, May 6.—Five names on the Marine casualty list were issued by the Navy Department this afternoon, one killed in action, four died of wounds.

TAG DAY DRIVE GRAND SUCCESS

NEARLY $400 COLLECTED FOR THE FRENCH AND BELGIAN RELIEF FUND.

The "Tag Day" drive yesterday by the Womans Branch of the Council of National Defense, for French and Belgian relief, was a great success.

Forty-five young ladies and High School girls canvassed the city with such success that nearly $400 was collected. There were eight companies officered and made up as follows:

Miss Bertha Cayce, Captain; Margaret Vickers, Lucille Bellamy, Beth Thomas, Mildred Cooper.

Mrs. E. B. Crutchfield, Captain; Mildred Murphey, Enos Powell, Katherine Cook, Florence Bassett.

Miss Bess Wallace, Captain; Elizabeth Gaines, Susan Owsley, Ame Bell, Julia Breathitt, Louise Merritt, Tilly Nickols.

Mrs. T. J. McReynolds, Mrs. W. B. Anderson, Captains; Thenia Wright, May Bell Hill, Sarah Cook, Florence Bassett, Elizabeth Cox, Ruth Lacey.

Miss Frances Summers and Mrs. Jas. B. Winfree, Captains; Margaret Lackey, Thelma Williamson, Elizabeth Davis, Grace Davis, Rebecca Brevard, Barbara Griffith, Verla Perry, Lucille McCord.

Miss Florence Bush, Captain; Addie Bell Gary. Lena Clark Clark, Captain; Mary Neville Hancock, Nora Golliday, E. Cooper, Ella Phelps.

Jennie Bush Captain; Estelle Bassett. Miss Jennie Glass, who is chairman of the local branch and her assistants were greatly delighted with the success of the drive. It solves for them the difficulty of securing materials to meet the demand inspired by the patriotism of more than 100 women who have asked to be supplied with cut garments to make up for the French and Belgian children orphaned and impoverished by German barbarism.

NICE CHECKS FOR RED CROSS.

At the beginning of the Waters-Jones Revival held recently at the Tabernacle, Rev. H. H. Jones stated that 10 per cent of all the collections would be turned over to the Red Cross Chapter of this city. Yesterday a check for $45.07, representing 10 per cent of the total collections, was handed to Mr. Ed. L. Weathers and will be credited to the Red Cross.

FUEL SHORTAGE IS IMPENDING

(By International News Service.)

Washington, May 6.—The traffic division of the United States railroads administration this afternoon issued a warning that "a serious fuel shortage is impending and can only be averted by an increased transportation facilities."

SUFFRAGE BILL IS BLOCKED

SEN. VOTES 40 TO 21 AGAINST CALLING UP ANTHONY AMENDMENT FRIDAY.

(By International News Service.)

Washington, May 6.—By a margin of one vote, the opponents of woman suffrage today blocked the order calling up the Susan B. Anthony amendment in the Senate next Friday afternoon. The vote was 40 to 21 against taking up the amendment, and two-thirds of those present would have been necessary to sanction the step. Consideration of the bill will be asked again next Friday.

LOCAL ADVANCE BY BRITISH

(By International News Service.)

London, May 6.—The British took 200 prisoners in a local advance in the region Morlaucourt half way between the Somme and Albert last night, Field Marshal Haig announces in night bulletin to-night. German raids south of Loire were repulsed by the French.

HUGH MINE FIELD.

According to Archibald Hurd in the Daily Telegraph, the area in the North Sea recently announced by the British Government as prohibited as dangerous to shipping after May 15, will be the greatest mine field ever laid for the special purpose of foiling submarines. It will embrace 121,782 square miles, the base forming a line between Norway and Scotland and the peak extending northward into the Arctic circle.

PADUCAH COAL PRICE.

Paducah retail coal dealers were granted a gross margin in profit of $2.20 on a ton of coal by the McCracken County Coal Commission, which met in joint session with coal dealers and representative citizens in the council chamber of the City Hall Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The increase of 50 cents in prices becomes effective May 15.

SIXTEEN MORE SOLDIERS GO

UNDER A CALL FOR 15 PICKED MEN FOR ENGINEERING SERVICE.

GO TO INDIANAPOLIS, IND

ONE EXTRA TAKEN AND OTHERS UNWILLINGLY LEFT BEHIND, ANXIOUS TO GO.

Sixteen picked white men were sent to Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind., yesterday at 3:30 o'clock, under a call for 15 men for the engineers' corps. Out of a list of 33 summoned all but six responded. Of these one is in Pennsylvania and accounted for himself. Warrants of arrests were issued for the other five.

The 15 men needed were easily obtained. In fact 17 wanted to go. Dudley W. Ledford and Wallace B. Major were the last two who begged to go and Ledford was taken, as he had come all the way from Louisville. John Doyle Hackney, another of the men, came from Oklahoma. The list as made up was:

John Doyle Hackney, Captain; Dudley W. Ledford, Lieut.; Sylvester Webb, Albert Cunningham, Robt. Lee Fields, Eugene Holmes, Jimmie Barnes, Geo. Ellis Armstrong, Clifton Fuller, Otho C. Mabry, Grundy Corum, D. Estell Nixon, Genie Childers, Leslie Long, Francis E. Wells, Fleming Pitzer.

The following were given temporary exemption for agricultural reasons:

Otho E. White, J. J. McIntosh, Jas. B. Stewart, W. S. L. Cannon, Jas. L. Lantrip, W. Ed Renshaw, Alex. A. Boyd, Levi Gray, Jno. R. Lacy, Aubrey Blades, Ernest Glenn Bagby.

Chairman C. R. Clark, of the Board, announced that another call for May 25 had been issued, but the quota for Christian county was not yet known. He warned all Class One men that it would be the largest call yet made and that practically all white men in the class might be needed, even those temporarily exempted. The young men going yesterday were not only willing but enthusiastic. They answered their names with stentorian voices and when an opportunity was offered any who had special reasons for wanting to defer the call, every man answered ready and then there was a chorus, "We are all ready."

They were taken to the Dixie Cafe for dinner and a large crowd went to the train to see them off.

JONES-WILSON.

Lieut. John Harve Jones, whose residence is in Bowling Green, and Miss Mattye McClean Wilson, of Pembroke, were very quietly married Sunday morning at the bride's home—the Ackerman Hotel. Lieut. Jones is 28 years of age and an officer in the U. S. Army and stationed at Camp Taylor. The bride is a most winsome and pretty young woman, and for several years has been teaching in the public schools. She is a daughter of Mrs. Emma Ackerman.

The wedding took place about 2 o'clock Sunday morning in the presence of the immediate families and a few close personal friends. Immediately after the ceremony Lieut. and Mrs. Jones motored to Hopkinsville and boarded the Dixie Flyer. They went immediately to Louisville.

TRACTORS IN CHRISTIAN.

The Kentucky State Council of Defense has imported into the State 100 farm tractors and they are being distributed to points where they will be of the greatest service to the farmers. Christian, Todd and Trigg will get seven. In each instance a farmer getting possession of a tractor must agree to keep the tractor in service as much as possible during the season and to do work with it for his neighbors at a reasonable price whenever the tractor is not needed on his own farm.

Are Not Only Holding Their Lines Firmly But Yesterday Undertook Some Straightening Out Operations With Success and Took 200 Prisoners.

NIGHT ATTACKS ON AMERICANS

(By International News Service.)

London, May 6.—The honors of the day on the Somme and Lys battlefields are again with the Allies. No large scale infantry action was fought anywhere, but a number of important straightening out operations were undertaken, which will make their effect felt upon foe when he unleashes his legions for a new lunge. Battering down strong German resistance, the Australian units thrust their lines forward to a depth of 1200 yards on a front of one mile between the Ancre and Somme rivers.

ers, about half way between the latter stream and the town of Albert. This front has been one of the nastiest positions the Germans have gotten themselves into since March 21 and every yard gained by the British to-day makes it worse for them. The aliens took 200 prisoners there to-day.

German poisonous gas was hurled against the American positions in Picardy Saturday. Berlin claimed some American prisoners were taken. The American correspondents at the front report heavy nightly artillery actions.

WITHDRAWAL IN PALESTINE

CITY OF EL SALT IS AGAIN RENDERED TO THE TURKS.

(By International News Service.)

London, May 6.—British again have given up the city of El Salt, in Palestine, which has changed hands several times within recent weeks. The purpose of the new British withdrawal, it is believed, was to secure the crossing of the Jordan river before advancing further in force.

DEMANDS A SHOW DOWN

CRITICS OF THE NAVAL CONSTRUCTION MUST SUSTAIN THEIR CHARGES, UNDER NEW LAW.

(By International News Service.)

Washington, May 6.—President Wilson to-day ordered a complete investigation by the department of justice of charges that the Americans' program of Naval construction had fallen down. Attorney General Gregory was formally requested to immediately probe all rumors and accusations which have come to the public through the Gutzon Borglum report and by means of statements made on the floor of the Senate.

TOOK SOME PRISONERS

(By International News Service.)

Berlin, May 6.—To-night's war office statement says: "During a course of forefield engagements with the Americans southwest of Blamont we took some prisoners."

AIR CRAFT STILL ACTIVE

(By International News Service.)

London, May 6.—The British aviators are energetically following up the recent Naval success at Ostend and Zeebrugge, between April 29 and May 5, the admiralty announced to-night. Effective raids were taken by the British air craft and direct hits were obtained on the German shipping.

AMERICANS ARE GASSED

VIOLENT ATTACK WITH 15,000 SHELLS ON SECTOR HELD BY SAMMIES.

(By International News Service.)

With the American in France—the American troops holding a sector of the French front in Picardy, assisting the French in defense of the road to Amiens, were subjected to an unusually violent gas attack along the entire front Saturday night. The Germans hurled 15,000 gas shells into the American lines.

NOT MUCH IS DOING

(By International News Service.)

Paris, May 6.—The to-night's war office communique says: "There was fairly great activity by artilleries on the north and south of Avre. There was no infantry action. From the remainder of the front there is nothing to report."

BENEDICT HANDS OFF

Pope Benedict has served notice on the world that the Vatican will not be a party to any "peace offensive" at the present time. It is believed that Berlin will seek to bring about a "German peace," and if its advances are repulsed attempts to nerve the German people to a new "bath of blood" by pointing out that the Entente Allies desire to crush Germany. Pope Benedict has let it be known that he is desirous of taking any step which may tend to shorten the war, but he does not see at the present moment any reason to believe that an appeal would bring about the desired results.

HUNS PUSHED BACK.

American gunners in the Lunenburg sector have chased the Germans from their front line trenches and wiped the targets in the rear area off the map. The Germans have abandoned all territory as far back as the second line. On the Picardy front the American forces have been bombarded with a new kind of gas in liquid form. The concoction thrown into the allied trenches spring. The gas caused nausea, coughing and sneezing, but did not harm any Americans. Aero activity has increased and two German planes were brought down Sunday.

Daily Kentuckian

Published Every Morning Except Monday by
CHAS. M. MEACHAM

Editor, Chas. M. Meacham,
H. A. Robinson, Asst. Editor.

Entered at the Hopkinsville Postoffice as Second Class Mail Matter.

Established as Hopkinsville Conservative in 1866. Succeeded by Hopkinsville Democrat 1876. Published as the South Kentuckian 1879 to 1889. From 1889 to 1917 as tri-weekly Kentuckian.

Fifty-second Year of Publication.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

One year by mail..... $3.00
One year by carrier..... 5.00 Shorter terms at same proportionate rates.

Advertising Rates on Application

212 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

WATCH THE DATE—After your name, renew promptly, and not mis-sumber. The Postal regulations require subscriptions to be paid in advance.

This paper has enlisted with the government in the cause of America for the period of the war.....

OUR SERVICE FLAG

Every soldier who has a mother living will be urged to write to her boy next Sunday.

Five hundred Chinese passengers perished recently when a steamer was rammed and sunk by a gunboat off Hankow.

Maddin Summers, United States
Consul General at Moscow, died suddenly as the result of long months of overwork. Mr. Summers had been ill only a day.

The American casualty list given out in Washington Sunday contained 119 names. Ten men were killed in action, twenty-six wounded severely, sixty-seven wounded slightly, ten missing in action and six died of wounds, disease or by accident.

Seventeen million persons in the United States have subscribed to the third Liberty Loan issue, according to analysis of the figures made at the Treasury Department Sunday night.
That is one out of every six persons. "It is the most successful loan ever floated by any nation," was Secretary McAdoo's comment on the result. Present tabulation show a total of $3,316,628,250, but it is believed the four billion mark will be reached when a full report is made.

Nicholas Romanoff, the former Russian emperor, together with the former empress and one of their daughters have been transferred from Tobolsk to Ekaterinburg, (170 miles southeast of Perm on the Asiatic side of the Ural mountains) according to a soviet announcement.
The transfer was ordered because of the alleged efforts of peasants and monarchists in the neighborhood of Tobolsk to promote the escape of the prisoners. The announcement does not mention the former heir apparent,
the young Alexis Romanoff.

Col. Milton Young, aged 67 years
one of the last survivors of the old-time Kentucky thoroughbred race-horses, died at Lexington Sunday
after a protracted illness. His death had been expected almost every minute for twenty-four hours. Col.
Young was born in Union county,
Kentucky, January 10, 1851. He married Miss Lucy Spalding, of Morganfield, Ky., in 1882. Mrs. Young and seven children survive. The children are Milton, Jr., Jack S., Thomas B., Misses Spalding, Maria, Alice and Lucy. The three former daughters are nuns, Miss Maria being now in Belgium. Col. Young served on the staff of Gov. John Young Brown and was a member of the Kentucky State Racing Commission at one time.

NO ADVANCE IN PRICE

MOTHERS
Keep the family free
from colds by using VICK'S VAPORUB
25c—50c—$1.00

A Newspaper
Clipping

By SUSAN CLAGETT

(Copyright, 1915, by the McClure Newspaper syndicate.)

Hugh McIntosh sorted his letters rapidly, pausing for an instant to look at the superscription upon a small, square envelope, the handwriting of which he did not recognize. This he laid aside for the moment for more pressing business and then forgot it.

This was strange, for it was an instant thing, lying as it did alone upon the desk in front of him. Once his eyes fell upon it and he stretched out his hand to take it up but was interrupted and not until he left the office, hours later, was he conscious that the letter was still unread.

He picked it up and slipped it into his pocket, thinking to read it at his leisure and again it was forgotten.
Yet he was neither a careless nor forgetful man, but at this time he was absorbed by an important case that claimed all his energy and determination to carry it to a successful issue.
Beside this, he believed it to be an invitation which he had no time to accept.

Two months later as he was passing the White House he collided with a woman in white who had suddenly stopped in his path to read the suffrage banner held aloft by a very tired-looking girl. With an apology he was about to pass on, when he caught a side view of the face under the broad-brimmed hat. "You," he said, stopping short and holding out his hand. "I thought you were in California."

"I was until two months ago," Mary Bowie answered, "and it is good to be back, even if my throat does contract with an ache every time a uniform passes me. War seemed farther away out there, but here, where almost every other man you meet is in khaki, it is very near."

"Yes," he said, looking at her with appreciative eyes, "living in Washington we are in the midst of things and the war is brought very close. But suppose we forget it for a time. Come and take lunch with me. I know a place where they give you wonderful rolls and a delicious salad. That is, of course, unless you prefer a hotel."

"My tastes are still simple," she replied with a laugh. "Rolls and salad sound good to a hungry woman."

"It is rather a shabby little place,"
he answered, almost in apology.

"What matter? Washington is a city of extremes. Two blocks up the avenue from the White House is shabbiness indeed. Walk down Seventeenth street until you reach the Corcoran Art gallery. What do you pass? Gentility, nothing more until you come to the wonderful group of buildings further on. That is the one thing about Washington—its strong contrasts."

"I did not bring you to lunch to talk about contrasts and extremes. I want to hear about yourself. Why didn't you let me know you were in town?"

"Don't you read the daily papers?"
she asked carelessly. "I believe I was announced even to the details of my traveling dress, which was an old one,
by the way, and did not deserve notice."

"I never read the society news and frivolity does not sit well upon you,
my dear young lady. What reason did you have for not sending me your card?"

"Are you sure I did not?"
"Quite sure. It would have reached me if you had sent it."

"I forgot your address and did not think to look in the directory. You can give it to me now, if you will."

He looked at her steadily. "Are you quite sure that was the reason?"

"Why not? It is the best I can think of on the spur of the moment,"
she returned lightly.

"Why should there be a reason?" he asked again.

"Why do you always look for one?"
she countered back. "Think of it as a woman's whim."

"Neither whims nor frivolity becomes you," he replied shortly, "but I will give you my card." He drew a flat case from his pocket and, not finding what he wanted, laid several papers upon the table. Uppermost on the pile was the unopened letter received two months before.

Mary Bowie's eyes widened, then became expressionless as she glanced from it to her companion, still searching for his elusive card. As he raised his eyes they, also, were caught and held by the square envelope.

"I forgot it," he said simply. "It reached me when I was absorbed in an important case. Of course it was inexorable. I meant to read it when I had leisure, but whenever I started to open it I was interrupted. If you will pardon me I will look over it now."

"Let it wait. An hour or so will now make little difference to your correspondent."

"I have never corresponded with a woman in my life, and I doubt if this is anything more important than an invitation."

She placed a hand over the letter,
still lying on the table. "Just a little longer," she said gayly. "There is no telling what news it may contain and you may wish you had read it alone."

He shook his head as he lit the envelope. "I will not have it longer upon my conscience."

As he opened the sheet he found it blank. Curiously he further unfolded it and a newspaper clipping dropped upon the table. It fell right side up and held his gaze. Over and over he read the printed words, then raised his eyes to the girl's face.

"You were right. It does contain news." He touched the envelope. "I have never seen your handwriting.
Did you direct this?"

For answer she took a pencil and card from her bag and wrote his name upon it.

He placed it beside the envelope and studied the two. His glance again fell upon the printed slip which, after a moment's hesitation, he read aloud:

"Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bowie en-nounce the engagement of their daughter, Mary, to Mr. William Berkeley.
The wedding will take place in the early fall."

For a time he looked absently at the clipping, then his eyes sought and held hers.

"Not if I can prevent it," he said at last. "Do you think I will let you go out of my life without protest?"

"I have never been in your life."

The reply came a trifle breathlessly.

"You have probably not realized it any more than I, but this," touching the slip of paper, "makes it very plain to me. The trouble has been I have never had time for play, but in the back of my mind has always been the certainty that you and I would live out our lives together. There has been no time for play nor for that delightful experience, courtship, and courtship is what a girl wants, is it not?"

"Surely it is her right." The reply held a touch of asperity.

"I suppose so and now I have no time for it. This letter came two months ago. It is now October, I will have to take you whether you will, or no. The courtship can come afterward." He looked at his watch.

"There is just time to reach the city hall before it closes. Will you come with me and from there to some clerk's man? I am afraid to let you out of my sight, Mary."

"And Mr. Berkeley? I gave him my promise."

"This is a question between you and me. I love you. I hope you care enough for me to marry me. Some promises should be broken before they break one's life. And, Mary, we can be very happy together. If I had time you would find it out before, but I am pressed for time and the knowledge must come later. Will you come?"

She had risen and was fumbling rather aimlessly with her glove button.

"I think I had better tell you some-
thing first," she replied a little un-
steadily. "I found I did not care for
Mr. Berkeley and at the eleventh hour
broke my engagement. I discovered
before it was too late that I cared for
another man."

"And that man?"
"He was very stupid." She looked
at him squarely now. "I had to find
some way to make him know his own
mind for I was sure he cared for me,
but for many years he had taken me
so as a matter of course that he did
not realize it. You asked me if I directed that envelope. I did not, but
I know who did. It was addressed to
you at my request, and I think, Hugh,
as you are willing, we will forget there
is such a thing as a big wedding. I
would rather go quietly with you to St.
Mark's parsonage."

"I think I had better tell you some-
thing first," she replied a little un-
steadily. "I found I did not care for
Mr. Berkeley and at the eleventh hour
broke my engagement. I discovered
before it was too late that I cared for
another man."

"And that man?"
"He was very stupid." She looked
at him squarely now. "I had to find
some way to make him know his own
mind for I was sure he cared for me,
but for many years he had taken me
so as a matter of course that he did
not realize it. You asked me if I
directed that envelope. I did not, but
I know who did. It was addressed to
you at my request, and I think, Hugh,
as you are willing, we will forget there
is such a thing as a big wedding. I
would rather go quietly with you to St.
Mark's parsonage."

"I think I had better tell you some-
thing first," she replied a little un-
steadily. "I found I did not care for
Mr. Berkeley and at the eleventh hour
broke my engagement. I discovered
before it was too late that I cared for
another man."

"And that man?"
"He was very stupid." She looked
at him squarely now. "I had to find
some way to make him know his own
mind for I was sure he cared for me,
but for many years he had taken me
so as a matter of course that he did
not realize it. You asked me if I
directed that envelope. I did not, but
I know who did. It was addressed to
you at my request, and I think, Hugh,
as you are willing, we will forget there
is such a thing as a big wedding. I
would rather go quietly with you to St.
Mark's parsonage."

"I think I had better tell you some-
thing first," she replied a little un-
steadily. "I found I did not care for
Mr. Berkeley and at the eleventh hour
broke my engagement. I discovered
before it was too late that I cared for
another man."

"And that man?"
"He was very stupid." She looked
at him squarely now. "I had to find
some way to make him know his own
mind for I was sure he cared for me,
but for many years he had taken me
so as a matter of course that he did
not realize it. You asked me if I
directed that envelope. I did not, but
I know who did. It was addressed to
you at my request, and I think, Hugh,
as you are willing, we will forget there
is such a thing as a big wedding. I
would rather go quietly with you to St.
Mark's parsonage."

"I think I had better tell you some-
thing first," she replied a little un-
steadily. "I found I did not care for
Mr. Berkeley and at the eleventh hour
broke my engagement. I discovered
before it was too late that I cared for
another man."

"And that man?"
"He was very stupid." She looked
at him squarely now. "I had to find
some way to make him know his own
mind for I was sure he cared for me,
but for many years he had taken me
so as a matter of course that he did
not realize it. You asked me if I
directed that envelope. I did not, but
I know who did. It was addressed to
you at my request, and I think, Hugh,
as you are willing, we will forget there
is such a thing as a big wedding. I
would rather go quietly with you to St.
Mark's parsonage."

"I think I had better tell you some-
thing first," she replied a little un-
steadily. "I found I did not care for
Mr. Berkeley and at the eleventh hour
broke my engagement. I discovered
before it was too late that I cared for
another man."

"And that man?"
"He was very stupid." She looked
at him squarely now. "I had to find
some way to make him know his own
mind for I was sure he cared for me,
but for many years he had taken me
so as a matter of course that he did
not realize it. You asked me if I
directed that envelope. I did not, but
I know who did. It was addressed to
you at my request, and I think, Hugh,
as you are willing, we will forget there
is such a thing as a big wedding. I
would rather go quietly with you to St.
Mark's parsonage."

"I think I had better tell you some-
thing first," she replied a little un-
steadily. "I found I did not care for
Mr. Berkeley and at the eleventh hour
broke my engagement. I discovered
before it was too late that I cared for
another man."

"And that man?"
"He was very stupid." She looked
at him squarely now. "I had to find
some way to make him know his own
mind for I was sure he cared for me,
but for many years he had taken me
so as a matter of course that he did
not realize it. You asked me if I
directed that envelope. I did not, but
I know who did. It was addressed to
you at my request, and I think, Hugh,
as you are willing, we will forget there
is such a thing as a big wedding. I
would rather go quietly with you to St.
Mark's parsonage."

"I think I had better tell you some-
thing first," she replied a little un-
steadily. "I found I did not care for
Mr. Berkeley and at the eleventh hour
broke my engagement. I discovered
before it was too late that I cared for
another man."

"And that man?"
"He was very stupid." She looked
at him squarely now. "I had to find
some way to make him know his own
mind for I was sure he cared for me,
but for many years he had taken me
so as a matter of course that he did
not realize it. You asked me if I
directed that envelope. I did not, but
I know who did. It was addressed to
you at my request, and I think, Hugh,
as you are willing, we will forget there
is such a thing as a big wedding. I
would rather go quietly with you to St.
Mark's parsonage."

"I think I had better tell you some-
thing first," she replied a little un-
steadily. "I found I did not care for
Mr. Berkeley and at the eleventh hour
broke my engagement. I discovered
before it was too late that I cared for
another man."

"And that man?"
"He was very stupid." She looked
at him squarely now. "I had to find
some way to make him know his own
mind for I was sure he cared for me,
but for many years he had taken me
so as a matter of course that he did
not realize it. You asked me if I
directed that envelope. I did not, but
I know who did. It was addressed to
you at my request, and I think, Hugh,
as you are willing, we will forget there
is such a thing as a big wedding. I
would rather go quietly with you to St.
Mark's parsonage."

"I think I had better tell you some-
thing first," she replied a little un-
steadily. "I found I did not care for
Mr. Berkeley and at the eleventh hour
broke my engagement. I discovered
before it was too late that I cared for
another man."

"And that man?"
"He was very stupid." She looked
at him squarely now. "I had to find
some way to make him know his own
mind for I was sure he cared for me,
but for many years he had taken me
so as a matter of course that he did
not realize it. You asked me if I
directed that envelope. I did not, but
I know who did. It was addressed to
you at my request, and I think, Hugh,
as you are willing, we will forget there
is such a thing as a big wedding. I
would rather go quietly with you to St.
Mark's parsonage."

"I think I had better tell you some-
thing first," she replied a little un-
steadily. "I found I did not care for
Mr. Berkeley and at the eleventh hour
broke my engagement. I discovered
before it was too late that I cared for
another man."

"And that man?"
"He was very stupid." She looked
at him squarely now. "I had to find
some way to make him know his own
mind for I was sure he cared for me,
but for many years he had taken me
so as a matter of course that he did
not realize it. You asked me if I
directed that envelope. I did not, but
I know who did. It was addressed to
you at my request, and I think, Hugh,
as you are willing, we will forget there
is such a thing as a big wedding. I
would rather go quietly with you to St.
Mark's parsonage."

"I think I had better tell you some-
thing first," she replied a little un-
steadily. "I found I did not care for
Mr. Berkeley and at the eleventh hour
broke my engagement. I discovered
before it was too late that I cared for
another man."

"And that man?"
"He was very stupid." She looked
at him squarely now. "I had to find
some way to make him know his own
mind for I was sure he cared for me,
but for many years he had taken me
so as a matter of course that he did
not realize it. You asked me if I
directed that envelope. I did not, but
I know who did. It was addressed to
you at my request, and I think, Hugh,
as you are willing, we will forget there
is such a thing as a big wedding. I
would rather go quietly with you to St.
Mark's parsonage."

"I think I had better tell you some-
thing first," she replied a little un-
steadily. "I found I did not care for
Mr. Berkeley and at the eleventh hour
broke my engagement. I discovered
before it was too late that I cared for
another man."

"And that man?"
"He was very stupid." She looked
at him squarely now. "I had to find
some way to make him know his own
mind for I was sure he cared for me,
but for many years he had taken me
so as a matter of course that he did
not realize it. You asked me if I
directed that envelope. I did not, but
I know who did. It was addressed to
you at my request, and I think, Hugh,
as you are willing, we will forget there
is such a thing as a big wedding. I
would rather go quietly with you to St.
Mark's parsonage."

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering. Says
Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting
statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work."

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise
would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all,
and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent,
for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui.

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui.
It did wonders for me."

Try Cardui for your troubles—made from medicinal ingredients recommended in medical books as being of benefit in female troubles, and 40 years of use has proven that the books are right. Begin taking Cardui today. NC-134

(Advertisement)

Teaspoons From Cotton Fiber.
Cheap teaspoons have been manufactured from compressed cotton fiber.

Preferred Locals

FOR SALE—Poodle pup, male.
Phone 575.

HAM SACKS.
Supply now on hand at Kentuck-
ian office at 2 to 4 cents each.

Smithson Water delivered Tuesdays and Saturdays. Phone 633 1.
Advertisement.

Good Morning. Have You Seen The Courier?
Evansville's Best paper.

FOR SALE—Nice lot on E. 18th street. Will take liberty bonds in part or full payment. A bargain.
Phone 614-2 or 449. H. A. Robinson.

FOR SALE—Wall paper 5c to 30c per roll. Stock replenished each week. Also "Stick Right" paste, powdered form. See Mrs. Emma Catlett &
Son. Phone 790. 311 S. Walnut st.

POSITION WANTED—By an experienced young lady Stenographer and bookkeeper. Can go on duty at once. Apply at Daily Kentuckian
office for particulars.

WOOL CARDING—Wool rolls for hand spinning and wool batting for quilts. Cash for wool.
JAMES CATE & SON CO., Incorporated.
Hopkinsville, Ky.

WANTED—We have a customer
for a small farm with moderate improvements and close to town. Also,
a party who wants to buy a small mercantile business.
RADFORD & JOHNSON.

THOUGHT THEY WERE NEW—
No they were shined at the Rex Shining Parlor. Yes, they will sell you the same polish they use. They have all colors. Did you notice my children's shoes Sunday. They bought a box.

FOR RENT—Seven room cottage
at No. 28 West 17th street. Cistern and city water, electric lights, gas and sewer connection. Good garden. Rent $200 a year. Immediate possession.
CHAS. M. MEACHAM.

SMALL FARM AT BARGAIN.
We have for sale a good little 62-
acre farm, just four miles from town,
in the southern portion of the county,
on a good pike and very close to a splendid school. Prices reasonable.
RADFORD & JOHNSON.

FOR SALE.
A farm of 153 1/2 acres, about five miles from the city of Hopkinsville, on the Lafayette road. See owners on premises.

OTHO OLVEY OR
JOHN SCHMIDT.

SMALL FARM.
We have for sale a small farm
with fair improvements, 4 1/2 miles South of Hopkinsville, on good pike and close to good school. Price reasonable and can give immediate possession.
RADFORD & JOHNSON.

REAL ESTATE BARGAINS.
FOR SALE—300 acres of good red clay land just 3 1/2 miles from Hopkinsville on one of the best pikes
in the county. Well improved, well watered, and a nice showy place. Can sell at a bargain and give possession at once.
RADFORD & JOHNSON.

Constipation causes headache, indigestion, dizziness, drowsiness. For a mild, opening medicine, use Doan's Regulets. 30c a box at all stores.
Advertisement.

CATARACT OPERATION.

We are glad to be able to report
that an operation on the eye of Mr.
Ruf Boyd who lives four and a half miles west of the city, was a distinct success. The operation was for cataract and was performed by Dr.
Beazley at the residence of Mr. Boyd.
—Advertisement.

The German name for tanks is
"sturmpanzers kraftwagen."

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

PROFESSIONALS

DR. J. R. HILL

VETERINARY SURGEON

Office Percy Smithson's Stable.
Hopkinsville, Ky.
Day Phone 32. Night 1107-2

JAS. A. MCKENZIE

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

Summers' Building

Phone 331

Hopkinsville, Kentucky

R. T. JETT, D. V. M.

Catarrh of Stomach

Mrs. Mary Fennell, R. F. D., Pomona, Missouri, writes: "I wish to say a few words in the praise of Peruna. I have used it with good results for cramps in the stomach. Also found it the very thing for catarrh of the head. My sister was cured of catarrh of stomach by the use of Peruna."

Mrs. E. T. Chomer, 69 East 42nd St., Chicago, Ill., says: "Manalin best laxative on the market for liver and bowels, very good for indigestion and heart burn."

Those who object to liquid medicines can secure Peruna tablets.

Made Well
By Peruna.
My Sister
Also Cured

By
PE-RU-NA

TINY TWO-YEAR-OLD TALKS, READS AND TELLS TIME.

(By International News Service.)

San Francisco, Cal., May 4.—A tiny two-year-old baby girl here holds the world's record in mental development.

The infant prodigy is Martha Springer, twenty-six months old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Springer, of Mountain View.

The child can read like an eight-year-old. The father says the child has a normal mind which simply has been developed by persistent training.

At a recent meeting of college professors and experts in pedagogy and psychology the child for forty minutes read, counted and told the time by the clock and talked with the men who were observing her. Her baby brain did not sag and she appeared to enjoy the long interview.

All were unanimous in declaring that the baby's case indicates that geniuses are made, not born. The child reads and speaks with a vocabulary of about 2,000 words. She is large for her age and eats and sleeps well.

To feel strong, have good appetite and digestion, sleep soundly and enjoy life, use Burdock Blood Bitters, the family system tonic. Price, $1.25. Advertisement.

"seeing" Sound Waves.

Interesting data regarding the visibility of sound waves have recently been published in L'Astronomie, in letters from men at the front. One writer tells of seeing curved lines of light, alternating with dark bands, moving swiftly across the sky while heavy cannonading was in progress. A second writer speaks of witnessing a series of arcs of light travelling across a cloud-flecked sky. Scientists attribute these phenomena to sound waves, which originate with the explosions and spread in all directions like enlarging spheres, resulting in successive and alternate belts of rarefied and compressed air, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. Under certain atmospheric conditions, with the sun in the proper position, portions of these spreading waves become visible in the form of moving arcs of light.

In Everyday Life.

It is well to remember that excellent things are rare.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

Wear
HARDWICK'S
Glasses

Now Is Your Opportunity.

I am prepared to furnish all kinds of rough lumber on short notice and do a custom business. Mills on the R. Y. Pendleton farm, 2 1-2 miles south of Pembroke.

H. A. RIVES.

Tel. 88-4 Pembroke Ex.

Pembroke, Ky., R. 2.

STRAWBERRIES

.. ALSO ..

VEGETABLES

in endless variety and fresh from the growers.

Tomatoes, Onions, Beets, Pears, Green Peppers, Lettuce, Cauliflower, Asparagus, Squash, Greens, Carrots, Spinach, Mustard, Parsley, Pie Plant, &c., &c.

Let's have your orders we will appreciate them.

PREMIUM STORE TICKETS GIVEN WITH CASH SALES

W. T. Cooper & Co.

FORD CAR BRINGS A SHOWER BATH EVERY AFTERNOON

Babies Grow Whiter as Doctor and Nurse Serve Daily Baths From Door to Door.

"Good morning. We have come to give the children their bath," this, of course, said in good French. Then from off the motor car slides a portable shower bath, carried into the house by doctor and nurse.

For the next half hour that little cottage boasts of a bathroom in active service, for when the water is heated the blessing of a warm, clean shower pumped by the doctor falls on the head of Young France, while the nurse scrubs religiously and the darkening water bears witness of a whiter, cleaner child.

And as you might well imagine, the kiddies like it, except the last cold dash that the doctor styles engineers by quickly transferring the supply pipe into a bucket of cold water—for hygienic effect.

And what a blessing it is to these meek, tortured people, who for months have been without all of life's comforts and most of life's necessities, to be ministered to in this fashion.

It is perhaps understandable to them that "les Americans" out of sheer pity might offer them that wicker thing that civilization calls "charity." But to be clothed, fed, sheltered and cheered as they have been by our Red Cross is more than they can understand.

For they have seen a great miracle grow out of the darkest pit of human experience. They have seen a bright light out of which has stepped the ministering angel who has taught them to smile again. They are no longer sick. They are no longer cold nor hungry, and now, wonder of wonders, this same good friend has contrived in some magic way—within the sound of the guns—to give them—baths.

BED, BATH AND BOARD IN JUNCTION CANTEEN

Brings Heaven a Little Nearer to an American Sammie.

A mother who is a Red Cross worker in her home town gave to her chapter the following letter she had received from her son in France:

"If you could have seen me yesterday, when I left trenches which the rains have turned into open sewers, even you would never have known me. I was mud from head to foot, so covered with crawling things that the poorest tramp in the world would have run from me, and I fairly ached for rest."

"You see, my first furlough had begun, and I caught a train for Paris. We were packed into a freight car. Travel is so congested we spent most of our time stopping. At last, when night came, we were dumped out at a railway junction with the information that the train for Paris would be along the next day."

Canteen Like New York Hotel. "I tell you I was discouraged. Then suddenly across the tracks from our station I saw an American Red Cross canteen, and all my troubles were at an end."

"Lots of people must have the same idea of these canteens that I used to have—just little shacks where you were handed out a cup of sloppy coffee. We are all wrong. These Red Cross places beat a New York hotel for variety of service, even if they don't have the gilt furniture and tip takers. Here is what happened to me: "First I had a bath, a real one, with plenty of soap and water. While I was getting clean my clothes, every stitch, were cleaned and sterilized. Then I had a meal of real American cooking, actually sitting down at a table to eat it. After that I went into the canteen barber shop and had a shave and haircut. Then, being a gentleman of leisure, I strolled into the canteen movie theater and saw some good American films. However, I soon turned in for the night into a clean, dry bed that felt like heaven—or home."

"And now this morning, after a fine breakfast, I am sitting in the canteen writing this letter to you and waiting comfortably for my train. You just can't possibly imagine what these Red Cross women are doing for us soldiers and for the French and English, too. Each canteen takes care of thousands every day."

"They make us feel like human beings once again and give us the nerve to go on with this game of licking the Kaiser. And when we win you can give a good share of the victory to the American Red Cross."

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS WELL?

Many Hopkinston People Know the Importance of Healthy Kidneys.

The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. Weak kidneys remove impurities to multiply.

No kidney ill should be neglected. There is possible danger in delay. If you have backache or urinary troubles,

If you are nervous, dizzy or worn out.

Begin treating your kidneys at once.

Use a proven kidney remedy.

None endorsed like Doan's Kidney Pills.

Recommended by thousands.

Proved by Hopkinston testimony.

Mrs. James Moore, 612 Jessup Ave.

Hopkinston, says: "My kidneys were weak and I was greatly bothered on this account. I felt dull and had dizzy spells. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills and they relieved all the above symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble. I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

RECAPTURE MEANT DEATH.

SAYS LIEUT. "PAT" O'BRIEN.

Asked what would have been the consequences had he been recaptured, Lieut. "Pat" O'Brien, the American aviator of the Royal Flying Corps, who escaped from his German guards, says:

"Had I been recaptured within a few days after I jumped through that window nothing more would have been done than to watch me with greater care. After I had been at large for a couple of weeks, I would have been placed in solitary confinement under double guard but after I had been placed in solitary country for a couple of months, they would know I was in possession of information that made me an exceptionally dangerous enemy and it would have been a case for the firing squad."

The extent of the information Lieut. O'Brien picked up in the seventy-two days he spent making his way thru Germany to the Holland border is indicated by the fact that it required six days to make out his report to the British Intelligence Bureau.

Lieut. O'Brien will be at the Tabernacle Hopkinston, Ky., Monday Evening, May 13th, at 8 o'clock, to tell his remarkable narrative of adventures in full detail.

When baby suffers with eczema or some itching skin trouble, use Doan's Ointment. A little of it goes a long way and it is safe for children. 60c a box at all stores.

Advertisement.

DEEDS RECORDED SINCE APR. 10

Austin A. Hall and wife to R. M. Barker. 249 1/2 acres land near Pembroke. $13,000.

W. A. Brinkley and wife to Ephraim Graves. 100 acres on Coal Creek. $900.

W. P. Winfree & Sons Co. to Virginia W. Hardison. Seven lots in Hopkinston. $1 and other valuable considerations.

W. P. Winfree & Sons Co. to James B. Winfree. Four lots in Hopkinston. $1 and other valuable considerations.

G. L. Campbell and wife to J. F. Weaver. Five lots in Hopkinston. $1 and other valuable considerations.

John Stites and wife to M. C. Spicer and R. C. Hill. Two tracts land. $15,500.

E. L. Allen and wife to W. A. Brinkley. 82 1/2 acres in North Christian county. $666.

Frank G. Crunk and wife to W. A. Brinkley. Tracts land on Pond river. $700.

R. S. Cain and wife to H. T. Gresham. 65 acres on Muddy Fork of Little river. $2,000.

F. R. Quarles and wife to C. L. Quarles. Lot in Hopkinston. $1 and other considerations.

G. W. Wood and wife to R. C. Cox. 4 1/2 acres on Sinking Fork. $1,670.

J. E. McPherson and wife and Douglas Bell and wife to Granger Baker. Two lots on Durrett Ave. $90.

Ed L. Weathers and wife to Hilary Dawson. Powell land near La Fayette. $414.

G. C. Wells and wife to Albert Wells. 56 acres on Pond river. $15,000.

Guntha Oldham and wife to Florence Weathers. House and lot in Hopkinston in Breathitt's addition. $1 and other considerations.

W. R. Johnson and wife to Birdie McBride. 54 1/2 acres on the Butler road. About $4,000.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

SEEMED ALL RIGHT TO HIM

But Possibly Mr. Soos Was More Interested in Cupid Than in Mere Matter of Spelling.

At last! The day, the hour, the minute, had arrived. Mr. Soos, the tall and handsome school inspector, stepped through the doorway of Alberta Blowsy's classroom and bowed pleasantly to Miss Blowsy. "Good-morning," he said. "I've just dropped in to see how well the children know their lessons."

Long had Miss Blowsy awaited this moment. Long had she had dreams of Mr. Soos, enraptured at the perfect answers of her perfect pupils, falling in love with their teacher. And the children had been so good lately! They knew their lessons perfectly.

"James Titwick, I will call upon you first," said Miss Blowsy sweetly.

"James, what is a blizzard?"

"It's inside of a chicken and it's good to eat when it's cooked," responded James promptly.

Miss Blowsy swallowed hard. "Item, Elotse Timms," she said weakly.

"Elotse, spell 'unique'."

"Y-o-u-n-double e-k, unique," responded Little Elotse promptly.

Miss Blowsy swallowed harder and collapsed with her head in the waste paper basket. "What is the trouble, my dear Miss Blowsy?" asked Mr. Soos in perfect wonderment. "Your scholars seem to be very, very well informed."

He then rushed to extricate her and they married and lived happily ever after.—Chicago Blade.

FEARS INCREASE OF DISEASE

New York Physician Sees More Affliction of the Thyroid Gland as Result of the War.

A marked increase in disease of the thyroid gland as a result of the war is predicted by Dr. S. P. Beebe of New York in the Medical Record. He bases this prediction on observations in Europe and on the fact that many of those who had suffered in the Kishineff massacre developed this disease after coming to New York; that their terrible experience in the Triangle Shirt Waist company's fire produced the same trouble in at least three of the sufferers and a similar effect was observed after the San Francisco earthquake.

For hyperthyroidism, as it is called, is known to be an effect of intense emotion, fright, distress, worry and mental and physical exhaustion.

"The civil population will suffer from somewhat similar emotional disturbance," he continues. "The wives, sisters, sweethearts and mothers of the soldiers have had some foretaste of what is to come, and, unless all previous experience is to be contradicted, the incidence of hyperthyroidism will be markedly increased."

Doctor Beebe says the sufferers will need special care, and the disease must be recognized and treated at once if the cure is not to be tediously long.

Life of Man With Respect to Calls.

At first he is a child, and is taken to call by his mother, and he "just sits on a chair." But sometimes in that family there is another child—it may be a boy child or a girl child; and so, presently, he finds a little playmate, and begins to play, until his mother decides it is time the call was over, and she takes him home. Then he grows older; he makes calls all by himself; and so impressed is he (being at the impressionable age) by the satisfaction derived from certain of these calls that he marries the young woman, God willing, and makes the call permanent. After that, his wife takes him to call and he "just sits on a chair." But it sometimes happens, even as when he was a child, that he finds a little playmate; and then, when all is well and he has quite forgotten that he is making a call, his wife decides it is time that the call was over. And she takes him home.—From the March Atlantic.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher

In Use For Over 30 Years

The Kind You Have Always Bought

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

Radford & Johnson

REAL ESTATE

We will sell you a farm in Christian and adjoining counties.

We know the farm lands of this community and will do our best to sell you a good farm or will sell you a nice house and lot in the city.

We have several attractive farms in our hands for sale.

Can give possession of a very fine, well improved farm if sold quickly. Price reasonable.

265 acres 1 1/2 miles of Fairview on rural route. Well improved and well watered, about 70 acres of fine bottom land. A bargain at $9,000.00. Terms reasonable.

200 acres 5 miles southwest of Hopkinston on pike, well improved. All good tillable land, red clay foundation and 1 c. well. Price $65.00.

Office 1st Floor in Pennyroyal Building.

ADWELL BROS.

TIN WORK OF ALL KINDS

Roofing, Guttering and Repairing.

Plat Bed Steam Boxes.

Country Work a Specialty.

HOPKINSTON, KENTUCKY.

Rear I. O. O. F. Building.

PRINCESS TODAY

Kitty Gordon

With Frank Mayo, Muriel Os-triche and select cast

-IN-

The Purple Lily

A drama of fast moving plot staged amid scenes of surpassing beauty in mid winter in the Adirondacks. An unusual story of excitement and thrills.

REX TODAY

Pearl White and Antonio Moreno

-IN-

"The House of Hate"

Episode No. 3. 2 Tremendous acts.

"A WOMAN'S PERFDY"

Also RUTH ROLAND in

"The Prince of Folly."

3rd Complete Story—2 big acts, entitled "THE CATS-PAW."

Also "HER BUSTED DEBUT"

A cyclone of fast and furious drama.

PRINCESS TOMORROW

Emma Wehlen

In a society mystery play

"The Outsider"

NEWS ITEMS.

The entertainment given by the pupils of the Gordonfield school Friday night, May 3, at the residence of Mr. G. C. Hille, for the benefit of the Red Cross was a big success.
They made $51.75. The following program was given, after which ice cream was served:

Music—Selected—Band.
Song—Star Spangled Banner—
School.
Recitation—The Flag—3 boys.
Recitation—Our Flag—Virginia
Hille.
Recitation—Stars and Stripes—
Ruth Hille.
Song—Soldier Boy—3 girls.
Recitation—The Little Soldier—
John Lackey.
Music—Male Quartette.
Dialogue—Service Flag—6 girls.
Recitation—Toast to our Heroes—
5 boys.
Song—Over There—Billie Boone.
Recitation—Me For America—
Downer Wilkinson.
Recitation—Patriots—Hugh Wilkinson and Christine Burke.
Music—Selected—Band.
Play Somewhere in France, Act II.
Quartette—Messrs. Barker and Cloud and Mesdames Barker and Cloud.
Somewhere in France, Act II.
Song—Marsellaise—7 children.
Music—Selected—Band.
Flag Drill—By School Band—Dixie.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

(Furnished by Whitfield Bros., Odd Fellows Bldg.)
May 6, 1918.

Corn—
May 127 1/4 127 1/4 127 1/4 127 1/4
July 148 1/4 148 1/4 146 1/4 147 1/4
Oats—
May 77 1/4 77 1/4 74 1/4 75 1/4
July 68 1/4 68 1/4 66 1/4 67 1/4
Pork—
May 45.75 45.75 45.60 45.60
July 46.10 46.20 45.90 45.90
Lard—
May 25.47 25.47 25.35 25.37
July 25.90 25.90 25.67 25.72
Ribs—
July 24.17 24.25 24.07 24.12
Bonds.
Lib 3 1/2's 98.86 98.86
Lib 4's 96.06 96.02
Louisville Live Stock.
Cattle—Receipts 1200, steady; unchanged.
Hogs—Receipts 3800; 15c higher;
tops $17.50.
Sheep—Receipts 50; steady, unchanged.

WEATHER FOR WEEK.

Ohio Valley—Probably showers
Tuesday, generally fair thereafter.
No decided temperature changes.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

GETTING WATER TO THE BOYS IN THE TRENCHES

Getting water to the troops in the trenches is one of the problems that has been solved by the Canadian forces on the west front. Previously horse transports were used to carry the water, but they made such slow progress that armored tractors have been substituted for transportation. There were times when the troops had to wait hours for a drink of water, but things are different now. The photograph shows a large tank being filled within shell range.

THEY THEN UNDERSTOOD

MENTION OF POPULAR "MOVIE" HERO ENLIGHTENED
CHILDREN.

Class 1, second grade, was reading.
Tom came across the word "famous," which had to be sounded out. By the blank expressions on the children's faces the teacher knew that they had no conception of the meaning of the word. She explained its meaning in language so simple that the seven-year-olds might comprehend. Then to illustrate, she asked, "Have any of you ever heard of Madam Schumann-Heink?"

One little boy of German parents
said: "I have. She sings."
Then the teacher inquired: "Have you heard of Fritz Kreisler?" Silence followed. Then one little black-eyed girl volunteered: "People on the stage are famous."

"Yes, sometimes," the teacher asserted. "You no doubt have heard of Sarah Bernhardt." Not a light of recognition in a single eye appeared at the mention of the "Divine Sarah."

Suddenly Tom's face beamed and he madly waved his hand in his instructor's face as he explained: "Oh, I know who is most famous of all—Doug Fairbanks!"

If Mr. Fairbanks could have stepped into that room at that moment! Such frantic ejaculations of joy as emitted from the mouths of those youngsters!
Such is the glory of being famous!

—Indianapolis News.

The Spirit of '17.

The boy had taken from his pocket
a pair of big, dark-blue, home-knitted mittens; on the palms was sewed red woolen to re-enforce them. He carefully drew them on, folding his hands, thumbs up, on his luncheon-box, edged
to the front of his chair, and sat thinking with eyes fixed on the far-away places of his dream. He was going over it all again; there was no haste, no excitement, no foolish sentiment, but sure determination and the courage of youth suddenly turned to manhood.

With a little start he came back to the present, and, rising said: "I guess I'd better be going. You said I could get a train in about half an hour?"
"Before you go, will you tell me, my boy, why you chose the infantry?"

"Well, when you read of anything real hard that has to be done you will notice that it is always the infantry
that does it. They have to be strong.
Young fellows like me depend on you for the real hard things. So I chose the infantry, sir."

There was a silence, which he broke with the quiet words, "I think I'll be going. Good-by, sir."—Mary Herrick Smith, in Atlantic.

HERBERT HAYDON

HAS A CLOSE CALL FROM A SER-IOUS INJURY IN RUNAWAY.

Herbert L. Haydon was thrown from a wagon that was being unloaded in the alley near his house yesterday afternoon and painfully hurt.
In some way he fell against one of the horses and the team started to run as Mr. Haydon righted himself in the wagon. His father, Mr. L.
Haydon was on the ground and was knocked down and a little later Herbert was thrown out and alighting on his back was unconscious when picked up by his father, who was unhurt. He regained consciousness in about an hour and an examination disclosed that no bones were broken and his injuries consisted of painful bruises, not of a serious nature.

DOING BUSINESS.

The 5,548-ton steel collier Tuckahoe was launched in Philadelphia, twenty-seven working days after the keel was laid. It will take two weeks more to make the vessel ready for service. All records was broken by the quick work, and the men were congratulated, not only in a telegram from President Wilson, but by Chairman Hurley and Charles M.
Schwab.

PRINCES TO-DAY.

The unusual story of a beautiful woman, the wife of a simple mountaineer, who longed for excitement and life's thrills and who took advantage of the first opportunity which presented itself to achieve her ambition, is told in "THE PURPLE LILY," the startling new drama in which Kitty Gordon, the internationally famous beauty is starred.

In the mountains many exciting things occur as the result of this woman's leaving home. She journeys
by dog sled to the big city and there meets another man. She has all the excitement that she craves and then,
in the end, returns to the mountains.
her simple home and the ordinary,
every-day things of life which she had so long known and, unwittingly,
had grown to love dearly.

This role gives Kitty Gordon some of the biggest opportunities of her career and, of course, she makes the most of every chance. As the story of "The Purple Lily" moves at a speedy rate and the supporting cast is very superior, it is natural that
"The Purple Lily" should be one of the fastest moving, most thoroughly enjoyable attractions filmed in a long time. It is an exceptional story told in a fascinating manner, and it will thrill you and enchain your attention.
Make a point of seeing it.

REX TO-DAY.

Pearl White and Antonio Moreno
in "THE HOUSE OF HATE." The screen's most sensationally thrilling novel. Chapter 3 and 2 stirring acts.
"A woman's Perfidy." Also Ruth Roland in "THE CATSPA." The third of a series of complete stories depicting "The Price of Folly." Also a very laughable comedy that completes a program of variety and interest.

BIG PIE SALE.

The pie sale held yesterday in the Kentucky Public Service building by the Eastern Star Auxiliary for the benefit of the Navy League was a very successful one as about $45.00
was cleared and will be used to purchase yarn and other dressings. Pies, cakes, coffee, and sandwiches were served and these were all donated by members of the auxiliary and others and consequently all the receipts were net. The ladies of the Eastern Star Auxiliary have held other sales heretofore but this is their first pie
sale for the benefit of the Navy League. Others will likely be given from time to time. Much credit is due these good ladies who cook and bake and give their time to this work.

BIRTHDAY DINNER.

Mrs. Kate Henry, the venerable mother of Col. Joutt Henry, was 86 years old yesterday. A delightful dinner was served at noon by Miss Mattie Moore and Judge G. H.
Champlin at their home on South
Clay street. Those present were:
Mrs. Henry, Miss Moore, Judge
Champlin, Mrs. Green Russell, Mrs.
Lucien Dade of Rochester, New York,
Mrs. Randolph Dade, Mrs. Fannie
Venable, Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Jefferson. A feature of the dinner was a huge birthday cake ornamented with 86 candles.

CARD OF THANKS.

We take this means of expressing our most sincere thanks to those who
in any way showed kindness to our beloved mother in her last illness, her doctor who ministered to her with so much love and kindness, her neighbors who brought flowers and cheer.
The ministers who were so kind to call and cheer her and to all who in any way made her pain easier to bear may God's love rest on all is the prayer of her children and only brother.

MRS. HARVEY UNDERWOOD.
MRS. HERBERT ROAKE.
JOHN E. BENNETT.
GARNETT T. BENNETT.
H. S. POWELL.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

(By Ben King Harned.)

On Thursday of last week the High School was honored with the presence of Rev. E. S. Smith, of the Christian church and Dr. H. W. Carpenter, chancellor of Transylvania University. Rev. Smith conducted the devotional exercises, after which Dr. Carpenter addressed the students on "Holding the Hindenburg Line."
The following are a few extracts from his address: "The thing which most vitality concerns every American citizen today is holding the Hindenburg line. Although there are thousands of leagues of water and millions of the world's most valiant soldiers between us and the foe yet it is of unmost importance that each citizen
at home hold his sector. Those far from the din of battle must share equally the burden of the struggle with those lads in the trenches. On those at home as well as the boys at the front depends the fate of the world whether we shall maintain our civilization or live under a Prussian yoke.

The citizen's part is to conserve
the food and in spite of the fact that we have had a year's instruction
in food conservation only 20 per cent.
of the Kentucky homes regard in any way the rules set before them.
It is the duty of the school boys and girls to go tell their good, unconscious mothers that they are betraying our cause and strengthening the Hindenburg line when they do not obey the food rules which our government has given them. Even since the new offensive the French rations have been reduced and in order to win this war we must go arm and arm, shoulder to shoulder with our Allies and we as well as they must suffer sacrifices. The amount of sugar consumed per capita has been greater during the last six months
than it was for the four years preceding our entry into the war. It is evident that somebody is responsible somebody is slacking somebody is strengthening the Hindenburg line.
Instead of giving the girls candy the patriotic thing for the boys to do is to give them thrift stamps, and the girls must squeeze their quarters and save their government. Each boy and girl must hold his sector, our soldier cannot hold his alone. As the lads from three continents go over the top we must go with them,
we must cloth them, we must sustain them.

The flower of Canada has blighted and every day the cables are clicking our casualty lists, yet each gold star unit and binds us to fight on!
Not for America alone but for civilization.

While our boys are bleeding rivers
of blood a problem which requires as much strength and as much heroism confronts the school boys. Like an ocean liner tugging at its anchor eager to turn her nose seaward, just so is the youth of America tearing at its binds eager to go into the fray.

But the message of President Wilson, of Baker and of Daniels is, "Our students must carry on their preparation." If the war last, five, ten, or fifteen years the men whom our government will need will not be the privates, although our privates constitute the glory and flower of our American manhood, but the men whom our government will demand
most will be those capable of leadership. The American casualty list will contain more officers than any other army that is fighting or has fought and to fill these vacancies
we must have prepared men. Our government will demand men who can think quickly, men who know
they are right and can go ahead.
If the war closes in two or three years the young men of America will have a world to construct. The other nations have been forced to draw on their students, and turn their universities into chemical laboratories and they will be unprepared to meet the demands of the reconstruction age.
On America therefore devolves the responsibility for the future of the unborn generations of Europe. It is harder for the boys to stay in school

"So They Could Trail Me By My Blood"

YOU Americans who want to know how a plain young Chicago boy can play tricks with the German army--hear the story of Lieutenant Pat O'Brien. The Hun couldn't hold him--this young daredevil American boy. How will they hold those others--those millions like Pat O'Brien who are now "over there" or on their way.

This is what Pat O'Brien did--or part of it. He fell in his aeroplane 8,000 feet into the German lines. He was nearly dead, but they couldn't kill him. They started him on the way to prison. All they had to hold him was a train going 35 miles an hour and four armed guards. But that couldn't hold our young man. He leaped from the window of the flying train.

Then for 72 days he ran and hid and crawled and swam and cajoled and fought--through Luxembourg--to--but hear the story yourself.

BEHIND THE GERMAN LINES

Lecture

By Lieut. Pat O'Brien
Of the Royal Flying Corps

No wonder the King of England gave him so much time--no wonder the English and the Dutch went wild over him--no wonder American audiences are listening to him spellbound. For this is a real hero--a modern musketeer--the kind of American that Andrew Jackson would have loved.

HOPKINSVILLE

TABERNACLE

Monday, 13th, 8 p. m.

TICKETS 75c and 50c.

Reserved Seats Campbell-Coates Drug Co.

Auspices Christian County Woman's Committee Council National Defense.

MRS. LUCY L. LAUB

GOOD WOMAN DIED YESTERDAY
AFTER A LONG ILLNESS.

Mrs. Lucy Lawson Laub, widow of the late A. M. Laub, died at her home on Fourteenth street yesterday morning after a long period of illness.

She was a devoted member of the Methodist church and was held in high esteem by many friends. She is survived by a son, Andrew Laub,
of this city, and a daughter, Mrs.
Ella Williams, of Birmingham, Ala.
The funeral services will be held at the home this morning at 10 o'clock. Interment at Riverside.

FOR TAXI—Call J. H. Reese. 549.

SUCCESSFUL SCHOOL CARNIVAL

The big school carnival given last Friday night at Pembroke by the Parent-Teachers League for the benefit of the Pembroke Graded School was a big success in every way. A little more than $160 was taken in and more than $130 of this amount will be net after all bills are paid.

NOTICE.

If your children has sore throat,
watery eyes, fever, or coughing, do not send it to school or let it go to Sunday School, picture shows, or public gatherings. Have your physician see the child. No child should be sent to school unless perfectly well.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT.

HARDWICK

Really manufactures jewelry right here in Hopkinsville. None of the usual sending away. One day service guaranteed on any special job.

The same is true of the optical department. We can grind any lens ever worn
in our shop in Hopkinsville.

HARDWICK

DR. BEAZLEY

---SPECIALIST---

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat